PERFORMANCE BY 'DANCEMONTANA'
SET FOR WEDNESDAY BARBECUE

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Campus Recreation Department will present an evening barbecue and a performance by "danceMontana," the state's first professional dance company, Wednesday, June 25, in the UM Oval.

The barbecue, which is open to UM students, faculty, staff and the general public, will be from 5-6:30 p.m. "DanceMontana," a six-member group based at UM, will perform at 6 p.m.

Included in the barbecue at a cost of $3.25 per person will be steak, corn on the cob, baked beans, watermelon and a drink. The dance performance is open to all interested persons.

Among Wednesday's "danceMontana" presentations will be three new works, including one entitled "Trail's End" by Bill Evans, a visiting member of the modern dance faculty at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, who recently performed at UM.

Also on the program will be new works by two members of "danceMontana," Catherine Paine and Kata Langworthy. Langworthy is managing director of the dance group.

Honors received by "danceMontana" since it was established at UM in October 1974 include a citation and letter of commendation in April from Gov. Thomas L. Judge for contributions the dance group has made to the arts in the state.

Besides Paine and Langworthy, other members of "danceMontana" include Connie Bess Snyder, Nancy Jean Brooks, Ray Spooner and Peter Aune.
